

Recognition, Reflection, and Resilience!

NWVU 21st Anniversary and Women's History Month Tribute

Hosted by National Women Veterans United

Saturday ~ March 21, 2026 | 12 noon ~ 4 pm | Hilton Chicago/Oak Lawn
9333 South Cicero Avenue ~ Oak Lawn ~ Illinois

Keynote speaker

Retired U.S. Army Specialist Shoshana Johnson

As the first Black female Prisoner of War in U.S. history, Shoshana stands as a decorated veteran and bestselling author whose memoir, I'm Still Standing: From Captured Soldier to Free Citizen - My Journey Home, offers a profound account of resilience, recovery, and an unbreakable spirit of service that resonates with generations of veterans.

Open Invitation

An open invitation is extended to all veterans and their non-veteran guests to join us for good food, spirited camaraderie, and the inspiring words of Ms. Shoshana Johnson, as we commemorate the 21st Anniversary of National Women Veterans United and celebrate Women's History Month.

Advance registration is required by March 2, 2026.

Sponsorship opportunities are available.
